Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines brings you 'closer' to your destination!

Here is a fantastic selfie of guests and crew on board Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' 929-guest ship Braemar, going through the bridge into Seville, Spain.

The photograph, snapped by crew member PJ Gonzales, on Saturday 28th October 2017, was the brainchild of Captain Jozo as Braemar sailed the Guadalquivir River on her 'Authentic Andalusia' cruise.

Rachael Jackson, spokesperson for Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said: "Fred.

Olsen's smaller cruise ships, coupled with Braemar's shallow draft, means that we can take our guests 'closer' to their destination.

"Our guests and crew were delighted to take part in the selfie and we wish everybody an enjoyable cruise!"

After an overnight stay in Seville, Braemar's 14-night cruise, which left Southampton, UK, on 20th October, then sailed on to Vigo and La Coruña in Spain. It has also visited Honfleur, France, and Malaga in Spain.

Fred. Olsen Cruise Line operates in the UK with four intimately sized ships for a more personal cruising experience.
