Guests can vote to 'steer the ship' on a Fred. Olsen Baltic cruise in Spring 2018

Looking for a holiday with a difference in 2018? Guests aboard Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Braemar this Spring will get the chance to 'steer the ship', on an innovative 14-night 'You Choose Your Cruise' sailing of the Baltic, departing from Southampton on 29th May 2018, for adults only.

On this unique 'cruise with a twist', Fred. Olsen's adult guests can 'chart the ship's course' and choose between two ports of call as the ships sails – keeping each destination a mystery! Guests can decide between vibrant capital cities, or opt to visit little-known – but charming – gems across The Netherlands, Germany, Denmark, Finland and Estonia.

Each guest's ballot is counted and the result is delivered to the Captain, who announces the winning choice. There are just two highlights that have been confirmed in advance: an overnight stay in St. Petersburg, Russia and a sailing of the Kiel Canal, which is inaccessible to larger ships due to size restrictions.

Justin Stanton, Sales and Marketing Director for Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said:

"The atmosphere is electric each voting day, and this exciting two-week cruise puts guests firmly in command! 'You Choose Your Cruise' creates a holiday made especially for those who love mystery, adventure and the smaller-ship atmosphere of a Fred. Olsen cruise.

"The first of the difficult destination choices that guests will have to make on board will be between Amsterdam and Rotterdam; both offer a number of attractions, but have a very different feel. Guests' influence continues from there for the rest of the cruise!"

To make this special themed cruise even more attractive, Fred. Olsen is offering the added benefits of £200 per person FREE cashback on board, plus FREE drinks or FREE tours – on all new bookings made until 1st March 2018 inclusive.
