

Mar 10, 2014 09:37 GMT

Start your Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' holiday from Bristol early with a free hotel stay and tickets to Brunel's ss Great Britain

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines will be commencing its first-ever season of cruises from Bristol \(Avonmouth\) in 2014, offering four cruises on 880-guest Boudicca to 'Canaries & Portugal', 'France & Spain', 'Undiscovered Adriatic' and 'Iceland & Norwegian Fjords', from April to June. To celebrate this inaugural cruise season, Fred. Olsen is offering guests the chance to start their holiday early with a free overnight stay at the Bristol Marriott Hotel, including breakfast and car parking for one car, and tickets to Brunel's ss *Great Britain. To secure this fantastic package – which is available for the first 40 bookings only, on the 28-night 'Undiscovered Adriatic' cruise, D1408, departing on 17th May 2014, or 14-night 'Discover Iceland & Norway' voyage, D1409, departing on 14th June 2014 – guests must quote 'BRS2014' at the time of booking, up until 31st March 2014.

For guests booking on the 'Undiscovered Adriatic' cruise, an alternative free offer is also available; guests can select from either a free door-to-door transfer service or an onboard spending credit of £150, instead of the hotel stay and ss Great Britain tickets.

The Bristol Marriott Hotel is in the heart of Bristol city centre, allowing guests to explore this cosmopolitan area fully. In addition, Fred. Olsen is also offering guests free tickets to Brunel's iconic ss Great Britain, one of the UK's number one attractions, drawing in nearly 200,000 visitors a year. Famously the largest passenger ship in the world when it was launched in Bristol 1843, and one of the first iron steamers to cross the Atlantic – taking 14 days – the ship now proudly resides in its home city. A part of the National Historic Fleet's Core Collection, a visit to this award-winning museum at Bristol Harbour is the perfect day out, before boarding Fred. Olsen's stylish Boudicca.

The two Fred. Olsen cruises that are available from Bristol with the free hotel stay and ss Great Britain ticket promotion are:

Boudicca's 28-night D1408 'Undiscovered Adriatic' cruise, departing on 17th May 2014. Prices start from £2,299 per person – from just £83 per person, per night!

After a first call in Malaga(Spain), Boudicca cruises to Trapani in Sicily. Many of the city's historic buildings are Baroque, including The Church of Sant' Agostino and the Cathedral.

Next, Montenegro beckons, where the Old City in Kotor has medieval architecture, ensuring its place as a UNESCO Historical Heritage Site, and the scenery is spectacular as you cruise through the magnificent Bay of Kotor. The 'Jewel of the Adriatic', Croatia's Dubrovnik, is a beautiful city and best appreciated by walking round the walls of the Old Town.

A maiden call at Hvar in Croatia offers the opportunity to discover this hidden gem, considered one of the ten most beautiful islands in the world. Explore the 14th Century cathedral, 'people watch' down by the harbour, or go further afield and bathe in the crystal blue Mediterranean sea in one of the many lagoons dotted around the island.

After an overnight stay in Koper, Slovenia, Boudicca arrives in beautiful Venice (Italy), where Fred. Olsen smaller-sized ships can still call. Take a gondola along one of the many canals, stand on the 'Bridge of Sighs' or visit St. Mark's Basilica; with another overnight stay, there is plenty of time to explore this fine city, rated as one of Fred. Olsen guests' favourites.

Following a visit to Gythion (Greece), Boudicca makes another overnight stopover, this time in bustling Athens (from Piraeus). Take the opportunity to visit the Acropolis in all its glory, explore where the first modern Olympic Games was held, or enjoy an evening at a local taverna.

On her return to the UK, Boudicca calls at Valletta, Malta's historic capital, and Gibraltar, with its famous 'Barbary Apes', and Duty Free shopping.

Boudicca's 14-night D1409 'Discover Iceland & Norway' cruise, departing on 14th June 2014. Prices start from £1,149 per person – from just £83 per person, per night!

Reykjavik (Iceland) is the first port of call on this cruise; as well as being able to explore this exciting city, guests can choose to venture slightly further afield to some of Iceland's most beautiful places, including the nation's holy place, Pingvellir, where the oldest parliament was established in 930AD.

Boudicca continues onto Söfðafjörður (Iceland), where guests can find out about the life and history of the settlement in the Maritime Museum, or experience a 19th Century fishing station at the Ósvör Museum. Akureyri is reached by travelling down the longest fjord in Iceland, and a visit to the Myvatn Natural Baths is highly recommended.

After stops at the pretty Norwegian ports of Olden and Flåm, Boudicca visits Gudvangen, one of the country's first cruise destinations, which has changed very little, and remains a typical fjord village. Bergen, which follows, is framed by seven magnificent hills, the highest of which can be reached by funicular railway.

All prices shown are based on two adults sharing a twin, inside cabin, and include accommodation, all meals and entertainment, plus port dues. Guests can choose to upgrade to Fred. Olsen's 'all-inclusive' drinks package from just £10 per person, per night.

Fred. Olsen is proud to be the only UK travel company to receive a coveted 'Gold Award' from leading consumer review website Feefo, having achieved a 95% service rating of 'Excellent' or 'Good' in over 5,600 genuine, independent guest reviews in 2013.

Fred. Olsen was also delighted to be voted 'Best Affordable Cruise Line' and runner-up 'Best Cruise Line' in the 'Cruise International Awards 2013', and 'Best Value for Money' in the Cruise Critic 'Editors' Picks UK Awards 2013'.

*One room per booking and must be used the day before you cruise.

See the website www.fredolsencruises.com for full Terms and Conditions.

Fred. Olsen Cruise Line operates in the UK with four intimately sized ships for a more personal cruising experience.

Contacts

Georgina May

Press Contact

Acting PR Manager

Public Relations

georgina.may@fredolsen.co.uk