Thrill-seekers are set to enjoy an Indian Ocean or African adventure with Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines in Autumn and Winter 2017

Walking with lions, enjoying a helicopter ride over one of the world's most active volcanoes or zip-wiring through the forest...adrenalin-seekers can enjoy all of these on three exhilarating Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' adventures to the Indian Ocean and Africa in Autumn and Winter 2017, as featured in its new 'Highlights of the Indian Ocean & Africa' brochure.

These three exotic fly-cruise holidays, all of which are offered on board Fred.

Olsen's classic 880-guest ship, Boudicca, are: a 33-night D1724 'Med, Zanzibar & Mauritius' cruise, departing from Liverpool on 14th October 2017; a 14-night D1727 'Indian Ocean Islands & Zanzibar' cruise, departing from Port Louis on 14th December 2017; and a D1728 'Madagascar, Mozambique & South Africa' cruise, departing from Port Louis on 28th December 2017.

What is more, guests who book any of these three selected 2017 Fred. Olsen fly-cruise holidays by August 11th 2017 can enjoy up to £200 per person free onboard spending credit (quote 'BESTOF' at the time of booking).

Justin Stanton, Sales and Marketing Director for Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said:

"These three incredible holidays are the ideal choice for thrill-seekers looking for an 'adventure-of-a-lifetime'. However, they are not just for guests seeking adrenalin-fuelled activities: our Indian Ocean Islands and Africa fly-cruises offer something for everyone.

"Those who want a more relaxing getaway have the chance to unwind on one of the stunning beaches of the Indian Ocean Islands, whilst culture-lovers can learn more about the Zulu way of life at South Africa's DumaZulu Cultural Village. Meanwhile, marine wildlife enthusiasts have the chance to go snorkelling in Mayotte, the Indian Ocean's largest lagoon."
