Four Amazing Themed Mini-Cruises Setting Sail In 2015

Cruises are a fun experience at the best of times, but imagine sharing a voyage on the open waters with people who share the same interests as you? Themed cruises are a great way to go outside of your typical holiday and experience something truly unique with like-minded people to form memories and friendships that can last a lifetime. We have some great themed mini-cruises coming your way in 2015 – here are a few to keep an eye out for!

Elvis at 80 M1510

Long live The King! Fans of Elvis looking to celebrate the King of Rock and Roll's 80th birthday in style look no further. Join fellow Presley enthusiasts aboard Braemar and travel to Randers Graceland for the full Elvis experience, featuring the only full replica of Elvis' Memphis home outside of the USA. Of course, the whole journey will be full of Presley parties, discos, film shows and two award-winning Elvis tribute acts. Put on your blue-suede shoes and book yourself a spot while spaces last!

Sea is for Comedy M1528

Never mind your sea legs – tickle your funny bone instead! If you love to laugh (who doesn't!) then our Sea is for Comedy cruise will be right up your alley. Setting sail from Southampton, enjoy this unique holiday experience that's a blast from start to finish, with five days of fantastic comedy and good times. Our hilarious performers cover a whole range of comedy styles that will get everyone laughing, and what better way to end the journey than the sunny shores of Tenerife.

60's Party Cruise L1523

Celebrate one of history's most famous party decades! The sixties are back again so get ready for three days of far-out partying with our 60's party cruise. Step aboard the Balmoral settle into your comfy cabin and enjoy a fantastic five-course meal, cocktails and entertainment before dancing night away to famous 60's hits. Balmoral will then arrive at the Belgian city of Antwerp where you can relax and explore the city – perfect for getting you back to the present!

70's Party Cruise L1522

Put on your dancing shoes and get ready to relive the 70's – A decade famous for its fantastic music and partying, the 70's will be taking over Balmoral for three days of food, entertainment and good times. From cocktails and five course meals through to a memorable 70's inspired show from professional entertainers, your voyage will take you to Belgium for a relaxing overnight stay. From here you will tour to Bruges and unwind amongst the beautiful cobbled streets and canals before heading back home.
