Peter Deer steps down as Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Chief Financial Officer

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines has today announced that Peter Deer has stepped down from his role as Chief Financial Officer.

Peter joined the business in 2004 and has worked in various roles across the business in that time. Most notably, he led the company through the Covid-19 pandemic and played an important role in securing the purchase of the newest ships in the fleet, Bolette and Borealis.

Peter will spend the summer enjoying some quality time with his family before seeking new opportunities.

Samantha Stimpson, CEO at Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said:

“I am grateful to Pete for his significant contribution to the business over his 20-year tenure, and specifically the guidance he has offered since I joined the business in February.

“I wish him a relaxing summer and prosperous future career, as my team and I continue to grow and modernise Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines.”

Samantha’s appointment at Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines follows 20 years of growth and transformation experience in the travel industry.
