Christmas Cruises from Fred. Olsen

Boudicca's home port for the winter is sunny Barbados. Her Christmas fly/cruise (BD075) departs on 18th December 2008 for 15 nights, with flights from Gatwick, Manchester and Stansted. The cruise calls at a medley of classic Caribbean islands – including St Lucia, Antigua, Tortola, Jamaica and Curacao - with Christmas Day itself and Boxing Day spent at sea, so guests can enjoy all the traditional festivities. Prices start from £1,911 per person.

The other Caribbean option is to join Braemar, based in Miami for a southern Caribbean cruise. Fly from Gatwick, Manchester or Stansted on 22nd December for this 18-night cruise. Ports of call include Turks and Caicos, Jamaica, Colombia, Aruba, Curacao, Grenada and Barbados. Christmas Day is spent at sea as Braemar cruises the Windward Passage and everything aboard is traditional apart from the weather! Prices from £2, 030 per person.

If you are looking for a pre-Christmas getaway to do some shopping and relax before the seasonal rush, join Black Watch on her three-night mini cruise to Amsterdam, departing Southampton on 18th December. Black Watch spends a night in Amsterdam, so you can enjoy some evening time ashore, as well as taking advantage of the Christmas markets and wonderful shops during the day. Prices for this cruise (BW871) start from just £317.25 per person, based on an outside twin bedded cabin.

All prices are per person, based on two sharing a twin cabin and include all meals and entertainment on board and port taxes. In the case of fly/cruises, price also includes return charter flights, transfers and airport taxes. All cruises at stated price are subject to availability.
