Holidaymakers looking to make the most of a UK break this summer can enjoy a free all inclusive drinks package or no single supplement on a selection of Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' 'Welcome Back' sailings, for all new bookings made this weekend.

There are six cruises on offer aboard new ships Borealis and Bolette, with departures available from Liverpool or Dover. Included are scenic sailings of Scotland's picturesque waterways, taking in dramatic scenery such as Duncansby Sea Stacks and Old Man of Hoy, or Fingal's Cave and Kilt Rock.

There are also cruises with ports of call, including Falmouth and Portland in the south, or the northerly ports of Lerwick and Kirkwall.

Guests can choose between an all inclusive drinks package, offering selected house wines, beers, spirits and soft drinks, and their tips covered, or no single supplement on each cruise. Solo sailings start from £699.

The flash offer launches today (Friday, 4th June) runs until Tuesday, 8th June.

Clare Ward, Director of Product and Customer Service at Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said:

“This summer is set to be like no other when it comes to holidaying in the UK. Adding an all inclusive drinks package is a great way to help our guests make the most of their time with us, and to enjoy the many facilities and new venues we have on board our new ships. We also have a selection of cruises with no single supplements, designed especially for our solo travellers.

“Experts from marine wildlife charity ORCA will join us aboard for our scenic ‘no port’ sailings this summer, with our British waters known to be frequented by common, Risso’s and bottlenose dolphins, as well as harbour porpoises and minke whales.
