Escape on a mini-cruise in 2014 with Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines

In response to guest feedback for shorter cruise itineraries, Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines has created seven 'mini-cruises' – including a new product of two-night 'Introductory' cruises – for the 2014/15 cruise season. Fred. Olsen's mini-cruises of two and three nights include city breaks to Paris and Dublin, and are the perfect opportunity for guests to have a weekend escape or for first-time cruisers to 'test the water'.

Nathan Philpot, Sales and Marketing Director for Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said:

“Who can resist the temptation of a few nights away from home in a lively city? All of our 2014 mini-cruises, which sail from four regional departure ports, will take guests, in comfort and style, to an exciting destination, perfectly suited for exploring in a weekend.

“For those ‘new-to-cruise’ guests, our mini-cruises are the perfect opportunity to get acquainted with the delights of cruising on board a Fred. Olsen ship. Experience the attentive service, delicious dining and great entertainment on board and discover new and exciting destinations – and it’s all so much more relaxing than arranging flights and a hotel separately.”
