‘Exploring the Fjords of the Arctic’ with Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines in 2017

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines is offering guests the chance to discover and explore the fjords of the Arctic – as seen on the current popular BBC Two programme ‘Arctic Live’ – on an epic 27-night journey to Norway, Spitsbergen, Iceland, Greenland, and even the secluded Faroe Islands. Setting sail on board 804-guest ship Black Watch, from Dover on 14th July 2017, this voyage will call into 12 destinations and sail over 30 areas of scenic cruising.

Highlights of this very special holiday include; crossing the Arctic Circle; shore tours to the iconic North Cape; the chance to see a Polar Bear in Svalbard; witnessing the magical Midnight Sun; uncovering a deserted soviet settlement in Pyramiden; and experiencing majestic scenery, such as mighty sea-cliffs, fjords and icebergs and thundering waterfalls.

In addition, guests that book this magnificent cruise by 30th November 2016 will benefit from free door-to-door transfers (up to 250 mainland miles).

- Black Watch's 27-night W1710 'Exploring the Fjords of the Arctic' cruise, departing from Dover on 14th July 2017 (adult only). Prices start from £4,399 per person.
