Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines extends its 'No Fuel Surcharge Guarantee'

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines extends its 'No Fuel Surcharge Guarantee'

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines is pleased to announce that its 'No Fuel Surcharge Guarantee', introduced earlier this year, is now extended to cover all bookings made up to and including 31st December 2011, for cruise departures from 1st January 2012.

The extension of this guarantee provides reassurance to those booking within this period that they will not have to face any additional fuel-related costs to their cruise, providing they make the commitment by the end of this year.

Nigel Lingard, Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Sales and Marketing Director, said: "This is particularly good news for our guests. We have been acutely aware of the uncertainty caused by increased fuel costs and consequent surcharges, and we are pleased to remove that worry for those booking 2012/13 cruises before the end of this year."

Fred. Olsen Cruise Line operates in the UK with four intimately sized ships for a more personal cruising experience.
