“Our new ‘All Inclusive Holidays’ brochure gives a very clear picture of what you can expect with Fred. Olsen. Whether you are seeking adventure, exploring new destinations, soaking up cultures or enjoying scenic sailing along rivers and through impressive fjords, you can relax with Fred., safe in the knowledge that nearly everything is included in the holiday price.”

Guests can also benefit from Fred. Olsen's ‘Enjoyment Promise’, which the cruise line launched in December 2013 to encourage people to try cruising; people who have never cruised with Fred. Olsen before can try a Fred. Olsen cruise, and if they do not enjoy it, Fred. Olsen will fly them home and refund their cruise fare.

For the 2016/17 cruise season, Fred. Olsen's fleet of four smaller, more intimate ships – Balmoral, Braemar, Boudicca and Black Watch – will be visiting no fewer than 253 destinations in 84 countries around the globe – more than ever before!

Setting sail from a total of ten convenient, regional UK departure ports – Southampton, Dover, Harwich, Tilbury, Falmouth (a new addition), Liverpool, Newcastle, Rosyth (for Edinburgh), Greenock (for Glasgow) and Belfast – it has never been easier to enjoy a Fred. Olsen cruise.

Fred. Olsen ships are ideally suited to the traditional British cruise guest – the Fred. Olsen experience is very much a ‘home-from-home’ feel, with a friendly and informal ambiance and award-winning customer service.

The dining experience is very important on board a Fred. Olsen cruise. Having been crowned ‘Britain’s Best Cruise Line for Food’ in July 2015, in the Holiday & Cruise Channel’s prestigious ‘Telly’ Awards. Fred. Olsen prides itself on using only the finest ingredients, and there is a menu to suit every palette.

After dinner, guests can enjoy a host of sparkling entertainment every evening, from string trios, pianists, musicians, comedians and energetic, cabaret-style dance shows.
