Sail from Portsmouth with Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines in 2021 with up to £100 FREE on board spending money

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines is offering guests up to £100 per person FREE on board spending money on sailings from Portsmouth in 2021.

Smaller-sized Balmoral will set sail from Portsmouth in October and November 2021 as the cruise line strengthens its regional departure offering from the UK, with cruises to include a search for the Northern Lights in Norway and chasing the winter sun of the Canaries.

To mark the new departures, guests who book onto any Portsmouth sailing by 30th November 2020 will receive up to £100 per person to spend whilst on board.

Clare Ward, Director of Product and Customer Service at Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines, said:

“We know that our guests are missing cruising with us, and are keen to get their 2021 holidays marked on their calendars.

“Our Portsmouth departures have something for everyone, from those looking to escape to warmer climates in the UK’s colder months, to those looking to get into the festive spirit or tick something off their bucket list.

“And those who book by the end of November will enjoy some free on board spending money from us to take advantage of Balmoral’s many wonderful facilities, be it a spa treatment, a meal in The Grill or some drinks in one of the bars between exploring these wonderful ports.”
