Sizzling South America Cruise Savings From Fred. Olsen

Balmoral L110112A Southampton – Callao

Escape the doldrums of a cold, British January, and escape across the Atlantic aboard Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines' Balmoral. Fred. Olsen has an unbeatable offer on the first sector of its 2011 World Cruise, a 22-night South America cruise, departing from Southampton on 5th January 2011.

Escape the doldrums of a cold British January, and head across the Atlantic aboard Balmoral. The relaxed sea crossing is broken by a first call into Funchal, capital of the lovely garden island of Madeira. Next, it is on to the warm welcome of the laid-back Caribbean, where the mouth-watering islands visited are Barbados, Grenada and Aruba, before the highlight of this cruise – a daylight transit of the Panama Canal.

This brings Balmoral to her first port in South America – Manta in Ecuador. From here, she sails to Callao in Peru, where the sector ends with a return flight to London, Gatwick.

Dancing fans will be pleased to know that there is an additional attraction – a theme of 'Ballroom Dancing', through Fred. Olsen's programme of special interests on board, The ArtsClub.

Prices for this sensational cruise sector are currently starting at just £1,652 per person, based on two adults sharing a Superior Outside Cabin (Latesaver Offer.) The price includes all meals and entertainment onboard, port taxes, return charter flight with transfers, and airport taxes.

Fred. Olsen Cruise Line operates in the UK with four intimately sized ships for a more personal cruising experience.
